

THE HANDS-FREE MYTH

80% of drivers mistakenly believe hands-free is safer than handheld (after all, they're built into many cars).

80%

EVEN WITH A HANDS-FREE DEVICE, drivers talking on their phones miss seeing up to 50% of their surroundings, including pedestrians, red lights, other drivers and bicyclists.